GEORGETOWN COLLEGE. Commencement Exercises of the Class

cal Department. DEGREES CONFERRED AND MEDALS AND PRICES AWARDED-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND AND A DIS-TINGUISHED GATHERING PRESENT.

The lefty towers and grim stone walls of Georgetown College looked down upon an interesting scene this morning. The occasion was the seventieth annual commencement of the classical department of the University. The spacious college hall was profusely and effectively decorated with bunting of patriotic colors and flowers. The band that discoursed appropriate music during the exercises was stationed upon a balcony on the side of the hall. The exercises began at 10:30 o'clock. Among those upon the platform were President Cleveland, Hon. Leo Knott, Zacharia Montgomery Cleveland, Hon. Leo Knott, Zacharia Montgomery, Assistant Attorney General of Interior Department; Hon. Ben Le Fevre, Dr. Toner, Dr. Morgan, Chief Stenographer J. J. McElhone, Judge Wm. M. Merrick, Rev. Fathers Doonan, Chapelle, Fenlon (provincial), Smith, Kelly, O'Kane, Messrs. Woodward, Wallis, Lambert, Morris, ahd others.

The day was one of the perfect June days of which poets love to sing. The college green was gay with the bright costumes of ladies assembled to do honor to the old university. The new hack rates prescribe the charge for one hour, and for each additional quarter of an hour. The trip rates are fixed on a basis of fifteen squares instead of thirteen squares, as at present. Another new pro-vision which Mr. Davis thinks an improvement on the present condition of affairs is that in the section changed at the Bureau of Engraving; and Printing so that the salaries of the employes will be annual instead of by the day.

Cannot refuse to take a passenger under that regulation without endangering his license. The point made at the meeting of Citizens' Association, No. 4, Friday night, by Mr. N. D. Mr. Larner suggested that say: "Nor shall any street car stand upon a street or avenue for a longer period than five minutes, unless the way be obstructed, nor stop so as to Holabird. Eleven bids were received, but the conobstruct a street crossing or intersecting street." THE LIGHTS ON CARRIAGES.

When asked by a STAR reporter the full meaning of the section that says "All vehicles traveling between sunset and sunrise shall display lighted lamps on both sides thereof, so placed as to be visible from the front, sides, and rear," Mr. Davis said that the meaning was plain. The regulation was more comprehensive than any heretofore enforced. It applied to all vehicles, wagons, and carts of all kinds, as well as to private carriages. The carriage lanterns which show in front and at the sides would not answer. They must cations have been received at the Interior Department in response to Secretary Lamar's recent ruling that railroads should show cause why their unselected indemnity lands should not be thrown open to settlement. As a rule, the railroads object to the opening of their lands to public entry.

and at the sides would not answer. They must be three sided lanterns, visible to any one approaching the carriage from the rear as well as from the front. Mr. Davis said that when the section about loud noises and cries was first written, it declared that "No person within the District of Columbia shall make any noise or outcry." Col. Ludlow said that would prevent a woman from crying for help if she MARRIED IN MASSACHUSETTS.—News has been received here of the marriage, at Haverhill, Mass., last Thursday, of Mr. E. A.
